

Effective immediately, Dominion Energy Ohio (DEO) will no longer be adding paper stations behind master production meters. Furthermore, DEO will be eliminating paper stations with one-to-one relationships (same producer/same marketer as master) effective with the October 2020 production period and will work with individual producers that are directly affected.

Master production stations with multiple paper stations will be evaluated at a later time for elimination.

Transportation Services
DEOLocalProduction@dominionenergy.com